Gentlemen:

With further reference to our letter of February 19, we have just been advised by our Bremen office that ORBIS Travel Bureau in Warsaw returned the amount of $50.00 which should have been used for travel expenses from Warsaw to Bremen.

In addition to our previous refund our Accounting Department will forward their check in the amount of $50 within the next few days.

Gentlemen:

Reference is made to previous correspondence, last your letter of February 16, asking us for an explanation of the break-down of the refund of the above mentioned Prepaid.

Please be advised that the train fare and expense money from Warsaw to Bremerhaven in the amount of $50.00 was paid through the Polish States Bank in Warsaw to Miss Wojciuch. As the Swedish American Line handled this booking as general agents, they received 3% commission on the amount of $378.00 which amounts to $11.34.

As this is the amount which you are still requesting, we presume that our explanation will answer your request.

Very truly yours,

Szanowny Panie:

Otrzymałem list od Anny Wojciuch w którym ona pisze że Konsul Amerykański w Warszawie odmówił jej wizy a to na podstawie że on osądził iż Pan jest starszym człowiekiem i nie ma wielkiego majątku wiec nie daje Pan dostatecznej gwarancji iż potrafi ją utrzymać przez 6 miesięcy.

Jedyny sposób byłby gdyby syn Pana podpisał dodatkowe dla niej papiery. W inny sposób nie da się nic zrobić. Niech mi Pan odpisze. List od Anny Wojciuch posyłam Panu dla informacji.

Re.: Prospective passenger
Mrs. Anna WOJCIUCH

Gentlemen,

We are pleased to receive your letter of October 24.

We enclose herewith our rate folder and sailing schedule for your assistance. In addition to the fares quoted in the rate folder, we suggest that you collect toward the prepaid ticket approximately $ 50.- to cover passenger's miscellaneous expenses such as rail fare, hotel expenses, pocket money etc. The rail fare would be from Poland to Gothenburg, Sweden or Copenhagen, Denmark; which ever port she embarks.

The passengers from Poland are not permitted to exchange their Slotti, and they will be destute if no funds are remitted by the sponsor.

We look forward to your prepaid soon, and remain
